

A People's History of the United States:"A People's History of the United States" by Howard Zinn offers a different perspective and underrepresented voices to provide a more inclusive narrative of the country's past.

Complete, Youssef

The Selfish Gene:"The Selfish Gene" by Richard Dawkins explores the concept of genes as the driving force behind evolution. Dawkins introduces the idea of "selfish" genes shaping the behavior of organisms to maximize their own survival.

In Progress, Youssef

The Master and Margarita:"The Master and Margarita" is a novel by Mikhail Bulgakov that blends satire, fantasy, and social commentary. It tells the story of a writer who is persecuted by the Soviet regime and his subsequent journey to Moscow with his entourage, causing chaos and questioning societal norms. At its core, the novel explores themes of good vs. evil and the power of art.

In Progress, Sofia

The Shadow of the Wind:"The Shadow of the Wind" follows a young boy named Daniel who discovers a mysterious book in his father's attic. As he delves into the book's secrets, he uncovers a dark and dangerous secret that puts his life in jeopardy.

Complete,

The Autobiography of Malcolm X:"The Autobiography of Malcolm X" is the compelling story of civil rights activist Malcolm X, from a troubled youth to a leading figure in the Nation of Islam and his eventual shift towards a more inclusive approach to civil rights.

In Progress,

Harold and the Purple Crayon : "Harold and the Purple Crayon" is a classic children's book about a young boy named Harold who uses his imagination to create various worlds of his own imagination.

In Progress, Santiago

Anne of Green Gables : "Anne of Green Gables" follows the adventures of an imaginative and talkative orphan girl named Anne Shirley who is sent to live with a brother and sister in a small town. Through her journey, she finds a place to call home and touches the lives of those around her with her lively personality.

In Progress,

The Little Engine That Could : "The Little Engine That Could" is a classic children's story about a small blue engine that defies the odds to pull a heavy train of toys to reach their destination.

Not Started,

A Passage to India:"A Passage to India" by E.M. Forster is a novel set in British-ruled India, exploring themes of cultural clash, racism, and the complexities of colonialism. The story follows the complex relationships between the characters as they navigate the challenges of life in India.

In Progress,

Charlie and the Chocolate Factory : "Charlie and the Chocolate Factory" follows the adventures of young Charlie Bucket, a poor boy who wins a ticket to a magical chocolate factory owned by the eccentric Willy Wonka. Inside, Charlie and the other ticket winners encounter fantastical challenges and adventures in the whimsical world of Wonka's factory.

Complete,

Ulysses:"Ulysses" by James Joyce is a modernist novel that follows the experiences of Leopold Bloom as he navigates a day in Dublin. The novel is known for its experimental style, stream-of-consciousness narrative, and intricate details of everyday life.

Complete, Sofia

The Stranger:"The Stranger" by Albert Camus follows the story of a detached and indifferent man named Meursault who is convicted of a crime. The novel explores themes of existentialism, the absurdity of life, and the meaning of death.

In Progress,

Island of the Blue Dolphins:"Island of the Blue Dolphins" is a novel by Scott O'Dell about a young girl named Karana who is stranded on a remote island and must survive on her own.

In Progress, Santiago

Anna Karenina:"Anna Karenina" by Leo Tolstoy follows the tragic story of Anna, a married woman who embarks on an affair with a young man, leading to personal turmoil. The novel explores themes of love, society, and morality in 19th-century Russia.

In Progress,

A Clockwork Orange:"A Clockwork Orange" is a dystopian novel by Anthony Burgess that follows the story of Alex, a young man with violent tendencies. The novel explores themes of free will, morality, and the consequences of societal control.

Complete, Declan