

The Hyperion Cantos: The Hyperion Cantos is a science fiction series by Dan Simmons that follows the stories of various characters across time and space as they navigate political intrigue, technological advancements, and encounters with enigmatic alien civilizations. Not Started, Brave New World: In Aldous Huxley's "Brave New World," society is controlled through genetic engineering, conditioning, and the use of a drug called soma. The story follows the struggles of a man named John, who challenges the rigid social order and questions the cost of sacrificing individuality for stability. Not Started, The Moon is a Harsh Mistress: "The Moon is a Harsh Mistress" is a science fiction novel by Robert A. Heinlein that tells the story of a lunar colony's fight for independence from Earth. The novel explores themes of revolution, artificial intelligence, and the implications of a lunar society. In Progress, Youssef The Polar Express : "The Polar Express" is a beloved children's book by Chris Van Allsburg that tells the story of a young boy who embarks on a magical train journey to the North Pole on Christmas Eve. In Progress, Olga The Velveteen Rabbit : A beloved children's classic, "The Velveteen Rabbit" tells the heartwarming story of a toy rabbit who longs to become real through the power of love and imagination. In Progress, The Trial: "The Trial" is a novel by Franz Kafka that follows the story of Josef K., who is arrested and prosecuted by a mysterious and oppressive court system for a crime that is never fully revealed. The novel explores themes of bureaucracy, power, and existential dread. Not Started, Infinite Jest: "Infinite Jest" is a novel by David Foster Wallace that explores themes of addiction, entertainment, and the search for meaning in a satirical and complex narrative. The story weaves together multiple plotlines involving a tennis academy, a halfway house, and a mysterious film that is so entertaining it drives viewers to madness. Complete, Aiden The Road: "The Road" is a post-apocalyptic novel by Cormac McCarthy that follows a father and son as they journey through a desolate, bleak landscape, struggling to survive and maintain their humanity in the face of extreme hardship. Not Started, Fatima The Catcher in the Rye: "The Catcher in the Rye" follows the story of Holden Caulfield, a disillusioned teenager who struggles with the phoniness of the adult world and his own feelings of alienation and isolation. Throughout the novel, Holden embarks on a journey of self-discovery and rebellion against societal norms. In Progress, Hiro The Snowy Day : "The Snowy Day" is a classic children's book by Ezra Jack Keats that follows a young boy named Peter as he explores the wonder of a snowy day in the city, making snow angels, building snowmen, and enjoying the simple joys of winter. Complete, Bridge to Terabithia : "Bridge to Terabithia" is a novel by Katherine Paterson that tells the story of a friendship between two young children, Jess and Leslie, who create an imaginary kingdom called Terabithia in the woods. The novel explores themes of friendship, imagination, and coping with loss. Not Started, Santiago Curious George : "Curious George" is a series of children's books featuring the adventures of a mischievous monkey named George and his friend, the Man in the Yellow Hat. George's curiosity often leads to humorous and entertaining escapades. In Progress, The Selfish Gene: "The Selfish Gene" by Richard Dawkins explores the concept of natural selection from the perspective of genes, arguing that genes act in their own self-interest to perpetuate themselves. Dawkins discusses how this idea shapes various aspects of evolution and behavior. Complete, The Book Thief: "The Book Thief" is a novel by Markus Zusak set in Nazi Germany, following the story of a young girl named Liesel who steals books and shares them with others during a time of war and tragedy. Not Started, Fatima The Cat in the Hat : "The Cat in the Hat" is a classic children's book written by Dr. Seuss. It follows the mischievous Cat in the Hat as he brings chaos to the house of two children on a rainy day. Not Started, Youssef Crime and Punishment: "Crime and Punishment" follows the story of Rodion Raskolnikov, a destitute and desperate ex-student who commits a murder and grapples with the moral consequences of his actions. The novel delves into themes of guilt, redemption, and the psychological torment of the protagonist as he navigates the aftermath of his crime. Not Started, A Clockwork Orange: In "A Clockwork Orange," written by Anthony Burgess, the story follows Alex, a violent and rebellious young man who undergoes an experimental treatment to curb his criminal tendencies, but the consequences of his reconditioning raise questions about free will and the nature of morality. In Progress, Odyssey: "The Odyssey" is an ancient Greek epic poem attributed to Homer. It follows the hero Odysseus as he tries to return home after the Trojan War, facing various challenges and adventures along the way. Complete, Youssef Gödel, Escher, Bach: An eternal golden braid: "Gödel, Escher, Bach: An Eternal Golden Braid" is a Pulitzer Prize-winning book by Douglas Hofstadter that explores the connections between mathematics, art, and music through the works of Kurt Gödel, M.C. Escher, and Johann Sebastian Bach. The book delves into topics such as logic, recursion, and self-reference in a playful and thought-provoking manner. Not Started, Aiden Paddington : "Paddington" is a children's book series written by Michael Bond, featuring the adventures of a bear named Paddington who travels from Peru to London and gets into all sorts of mischief. Not Started, Fatima To Kill A Mockingbird: "To Kill a Mockingbird" is a classic novel by Harper Lee that explores themes of racial injustice, morality, and innocence through the eyes of a young girl named Scout Finch in the 1930s American South. The story follows her father, lawyer Atticus Finch, as he defends a black man falsely accused of raping a white woman. Complete, Ishmael: "Ishmael" by Daniel Quinn is a philosophical novel that explores humanity's impact on the planet through a series of conversations between a man and a telepathic gorilla named Ishmael. Together, they delve into the concept of civilization and the ecological crisis facing the world. In Progress, Santiago Snow Crash: In "Snow Crash," written by Neal Stephenson, the story follows Hiro Protagonist, a hacker and samurai sword-wielding pizza delivery driver, as he navigates a virtual reality world and uncovers a conspiracy involving a dangerous computer virus named Snow Crash. Complete, The Fountainhead: "The Fountainhead" by Ayn Rand is a philosophical novel that follows the life of an innovative architect, Howard Roark, who struggles against conformity and mediocrity in pursuit of his artistic vision. Not Started, Hiro Anna Karenina: "Anna Karenina" by Leo Tolstoy is a novel that follows the life of Anna Karenina, a married woman who falls in love with Count Vronsky, leading to a tragic and tumultuous affair that explores themes of love, society, and morality. Not Started, Things Fall Apart: "Things Fall Apart" by Chinua Achebe is a novel that follows the life of Okonkwo, a respected leader in a Nigerian village, as he grapples with the impact of colonialism on his community and traditional way of life. Not Started, Frog and Toad Are Friends :”Frog and Toad Are Friends” is a charming children’s book written by Arnold Lobel that follows the adventures of two best friends, Frog and Toad, as they navigate life’s ups and downs together. The stories highlight the importance of friendship, kindness, and understanding. Complete, Declan The Sun Also Rises:”The Sun Also Rises” follows a group of American and British expatriates as they travel from Paris to Pamplona, Spain, to watch the running of the bulls and engage in the local festivities. The novel explores themes of disillusionment, lost generation, and the search for meaning in a post-World War I world. Not Started, The Giver:”The Giver” is a dystopian novel by Lois Lowry that follows Jonas, a young boy living in a society where emotions and memories are suppressed. When Jonas is chosen to be the Receiver of Memory, he learns about the dark secrets of his community and must decide whether to accept the status quo or rebel against it. Complete, Aiden The Magic Mountain:”The Magic Mountain” by Thomas Mann follows the protagonist, Hans Castorp, as he visits a sanatorium in the Swiss Alps and becomes entangled in the lives and philosophical discussions of the patients and staff over the course of seven years. Not Started, Sofia The Phantom Tollbooth :”The Phantom Tollbooth” is a whimsical children’s book that follows the adventures of a young boy named Milo as he explores the fantastical lands of Wisdom and Ignorance. Along the way, he learns valuable lessons about the importance of curiosity, learning, and imagination. Not Started, Fatima Candide:”Candide” by Voltaire is a satirical novella that follows the young and naive Candide as he navigates a series of misfortunes, challenging his optimistic beliefs about the world. Through a series of absurd adventures, the novel critiques philosophical optimism and explores themes of fate, suffering, and the nature of good and evil. Complete, Cat’s Cradle:”Cat’s Cradle” is a satirical novel by Kurt Vonnegut that explores themes of science, religion, and the end of the world as we know it through the eyes of the protagonist who becomes entangled with a new form of water with apocalyptic implications. In Progress, Santiago The Wind in the Willows :”The Wind in the Willows” is a classic children’s novel by Kenneth Grahame that follows the adventures of anthropomorphic animals, including Mole, Rat, Toad, and Badger, as they explore the English countryside and navigate friendships and challenges. In Progress, Aiden Pippi Longstocking :”Pippi Longstocking” is a classic children’s book by Astrid Lindgren about an unconventional and strong-willed young girl who lives independently with her monkey and horse, and has a series of adventures with her friends Tommy and Annika. Complete, Lies My Teacher Told Me:Lies My Teacher Told Me: Everything Your American History Textbook Got Wrong is a book by James W. Loewen that critically examines the way American history is taught in schools and challenges the inaccuracies and myths perpetuated in textbooks. In Progress, Santiago Charlotte’s Web :”Charlotte’s Web” is a children’s novel by E.B. White that tells the story of a pig named Wilbur and his friendship with a spider named Charlotte. Charlotte tries to save Wilbur from being slaughtered by using her web to write messages that make him famous.

In Progress, Olga The Old Man and the Sea:"The Old Man and the Sea" is a novel by Ernest Hemingway that tells the story of an aging Cuban fisherman named Santiago who embarks on a challenging fishing expedition to prove his worth as a fisherman. The novella explores themes of perseverance, resilience, and the struggle against nature. In Progress, Olga Ringworld:"Ringworld" is a science fiction novel by Larry Niven that follows a group of explorers who discover a massive artificial ring-shaped structure surrounding a distant star. They embark on a journey to uncover the secrets of the mysterious Ringworld. Not Started, Youssef You Can Choose to Be Happy:"You Can Choose to Be Happy" is a self-help book that provides strategies and insights on how to cultivate happiness and well-being in your life through mindset shifts and positive habits. Not Started, A Game of Thrones:In the fantasy novel "A Game of Thrones," the noble families of Westeros engage in political intrigue, betrayal, and warfare to claim the Iron Throne. Amidst the power struggles, dark forces and ancient mysteries threaten the realm. Complete, Fatima Fahrenheit 451:In a dystopian society where books are banned and "firemen" burn any that are found, one fireman begins to question the status quo and the consequences of censorship and ignorance. Complete, Lord of the Flies:"Lord of the Flies" is a novel by William Golding that explores the dark and violent tendencies of human nature when a group of boys stranded on a deserted island descend into chaos and barbarism. In Progress, Sofia The Geography of Nowhere:"The Geography of Nowhere" is a non-fiction book by James Howard Kunstler that explores the impact of urban sprawl, architecture, and the decline of public spaces on American society. It critiques the design of modern cities and suburbs, advocating for a return to more sustainable and community-oriented urban planning. Complete, Youssef On the Road:"On the Road" is a novel by Jack Kerouac that follows the journey of two friends as they travel across America in search of meaning and connection. The story captures the spirit of the Beat Generation and explores themes of freedom, self-discovery, and rebellion. In Progress, In Search of Lost Time:"In Search of Lost Time" is a novel by Marcel Proust that follows the narrator's memories and reflections on his past experiences, exploring themes of memory, love, and society in intricate detail. In Progress, Fatima Gone with the Wind:"Gone with the Wind" is a historical novel set during the American Civil War and Reconstruction era. It follows the life of Scarlett O'Hara, a strong-willed Southern belle, as she navigates love, loss, and survival amidst the tumultuous events of the time. In Progress, Olga Dune:"Dune" is a science fiction novel by Frank Herbert that follows the story of young Paul Atreides as he navigates political intrigue and power struggles on the desert planet of Arrakis. Paul must learn to harness his latent abilities to fulfill his destiny as the prophesied messiah of the desert-dwelling Fremen people. Not Started, The Secret Garden : "The Secret Garden" is a classic children's novel by Frances Hodgson Burnett. It tells the story of Mary Lennox, a young girl who discovers a hidden, neglected garden on her uncle's estate and, with the help of her friends, brings it back to life, leading to personal growth and healing for all involved. Not Started, Adventures of Huckleberry Finn:"The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn" follows the journey of a young boy named Huck Finn as he escapes his abusive father and embarks on a rafting adventure down the Mississippi River with a runaway slave named Jim. Along the way, they encounter various characters and face moral dilemmas, ultimately exploring themes of race, freedom, and the importance of individual conscience. In Progress, A Short History of Nearly Everything: "A Short History of Nearly Everything" by Bill Bryson is a popular science book that explores various scientific topics in an engaging and accessible way, covering everything from the origins of the universe to the complexities of DNA. Not Started, Santiago Mrs. Dalloway: "Mrs. Dalloway" by Virginia Woolf follows Clarissa Dalloway as she prepares for a party while reflecting on her life, relationships, and the complexities of human experience in post-World War I England. In Progress, Harold and the Purple Crayon : "Harold and the Purple Crayon" is a beloved children's book about a young boy named Harold who uses his purple crayon to create imaginative adventures and solve problems in his own world. In Progress, Beloved: "Beloved" by Toni Morrison is a powerful novel that tells the story of Sethe, a former slave haunted by the ghost of her daughter. The book explores themes of slavery, trauma, and the enduring impact of the past on the present. Not Started, Sofia Winnie-the-Pooh : "Winnie-the-Pooh" is a collection of stories featuring the beloved bear, Winnie-the-Pooh, and his friends in the Hundred Acre Wood. The whimsical tales follow their adventures and showcase themes of friendship, kindness, and simple joys. Not Started, Youssef The Paper Bag Princess : "The Paper Bag Princess" is a beloved children's book written by Robert Munsch. It tells the story of a princess named Elizabeth who outsmarts a dragon and rescues her prince, all while wearing nothing but a paper bag. Not Started, Declan A People's History of the United States: A People's History of the United States by Howard Zinn is a non-fiction book that presents American history from the perspective of marginalized groups such as Native Americans, African Americans, women, and laborers. It challenges traditional narratives and shines a light on overlooked voices in history. Complete, Priya To the Lighthouse: "To the Lighthouse" is a novel by Virginia Woolf that explores the complexities of human relationships, the passage of time, and the ever-changing nature of life through the lens of a family's annual visits to a lighthouse. In Progress, Hiro Amelia Bedelia : Amelia Bedelia is a classic children's book series written by Peggy Parish. The stories follow the titular character, a housekeeper who takes idioms and instructions literally, leading to humorous misunderstandings and mishaps. Complete, Declan Great Expectations: "Great Expectations" by Charles Dickens follows the life of an orphan named Pip as he navigates social class, love, and ambition in Victorian England. The novel explores themes of identity, wealth, and redemption through Pip's interactions with various characters. Complete, Alexander and the Terrible, Horrible, No Good, Very Bad Day : "Alexander and the Terrible, Horrible, No Good, Very Bad Day" follows a young boy named Alexander who experiences a series of unfortunate events throughout his day. From waking up with gum in his hair to facing various mishaps at school, Alexander's day goes from bad to worse until he finally learns that everyone has bad days sometimes. Not Started, Calvin and Hobbes: "Calvin and Hobbes" is a beloved comic strip created by Bill Watterson that follows the adventures of a precocious boy named

Calvin and his stuffed tiger, Hobbes, who comes to life in Calvin's imagination. The strip explores friendship, imagination, and the wonders of childhood in a humorous and heartwarming way. Complete, The Lorax : "The Lorax" is a children's book by Dr. Seuss that tells the story of the Once-ler who destroys a forest of Truffula trees to make Thneeds, despite the warnings of the Lorax, a creature who speaks for the trees. Complete, Sofia Harry Potter Series: A young wizard, Harry Potter, discovers he is a wizard and attends Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry, where he and his friends Ron and Hermione face challenges and uncover the truth behind the dark wizard Voldemort's rise to power. Complete, Hiro Goodnight Moon : "Goodnight Moon" is a classic children's book written by Margaret Wise Brown. It follows a young bunny saying goodnight to various objects in his room before falling asleep. Complete, Sofia The Shadow of the Wind: "The Shadow of the Wind" follows a young boy named Daniel who discovers a mysterious book by an unknown author. As he delves into the book's origins, he uncovers a dark secret that leads to a dangerous and captivating journey through the streets of Barcelona. Complete, Fatima Rebecca: "Rebecca" is a classic novel by Daphne du Maurier that tells the story of a young woman who marries a wealthy widower and moves into his grand estate, Manderley. However, she soon discovers that the shadow of his first wife, Rebecca, continues to haunt the house and their lives. Complete, Hiro Atlas Shrugged: "Atlas Shrugged" is a novel by Ayn Rand that explores themes of individualism, capitalism, and the importance of the pursuit of one's own happiness. The story follows the struggles of industrialists and entrepreneurs who rebel against government interference and societal expectations. Not Started, Sofia Green Eggs and Ham : "Green Eggs and Ham" is a classic children's book by Dr. Seuss that follows Sam-I-Am as he tries to convince an unnamed character to try green eggs and ham in various situations. Not Started, Notes From Underground: "Notes from Underground" is a novella by Fyodor Dostoevsky that explores the rambling thoughts and existential crisis of an unnamed narrator living in St. Petersburg. The narrator reflects on his alienation from society and his inner turmoil, offering a scathing critique of rationalism and the human condition. In Progress, Sofia The Dharma Bums: "The Dharma Bums" is a novel by Jack Kerouac that follows the story of two friends, Ray Smith and Japhy Ryder, as they explore Zen Buddhism, poetry, nature, and the countercultural lifestyle of the 1950s Beat Generation. Not Started, The BFG : "The BFG" is a children's book by Roald Dahl about a friendly giant named the Big Friendly Giant who befriends a young orphan girl named Sophie. Together, they embark on an adventure to stop the other giants from eating human children. Complete, Hiro The Bell Jar: "The Bell Jar" is a novel by Sylvia Plath that follows the mental breakdown of a young woman named Esther Greenwood as she struggles with her identity and societal expectations in the 1950s. In Progress, The Forever War: "The Forever War" is a science fiction novel by Joe Haldeman that follows the story of a soldier who becomes caught in an interstellar conflict that spans centuries due to time dilation effects from space travel. Complete, Mei A Tale of Two Cities: "A Tale of Two Cities" by Charles Dickens is a historical novel set in London and Paris before and during the French Revolution. The story follows the lives of several characters as they navigate love, sacrifice, and the tumultuous events of the time. In Progress, The Goldfinch: "The Goldfinch" follows the story of a young boy named Theo Decker who survives a terrorist attack at an art museum and becomes entangled in the world of art theft and crime while holding on to a small painting that holds great significance to him. Not Started, Heart of Darkness: "Heart of Darkness" is a novella by Joseph Conrad that follows Charles Marlow as he recounts his journey into the Congo to find the enigmatic ivory trader Kurtz, revealing the darkness of colonialism and the human psyche. Not Started, The Gruffalo: "The Gruffalo" is a classic children's book written by Julia Donaldson. It tells the story of a mouse who outsmarts predators by inventing a fearsome creature called the Gruffalo, only to come face to face with the imaginary beast in the forest. Not Started, Ulysses: "Ulysses" by James Joyce follows the experiences of Leopold Bloom over the course of a single day in Dublin, intertwining his story with that of Stephen Dedalus. This modernist novel is known for its experimental narrative style and exploration of themes such as identity, consciousness, and Irish history. Not Started, Youssef The Master and Margarita: "The Master and Margarita" by Mikhail Bulgakov is a novel that combines elements of satire, fantasy, and romance. It tells the story of the Devil visiting Moscow in the 1930s, causing chaos and challenging the moral values of society. In Progress, Fatima The Diamond Age: "The Diamond Age" is a science fiction novel by Neal Stephenson set in a future world where nanotechnology and artificial intelligence play key roles. The story follows a young girl named Nell who receives a highly advanced interactive book that guides her through a transformative journey. Complete, Mei James and the Giant Peach: "James and the Giant Peach" follows the story of a young boy named James who embarks on a magical adventure inside a giant peach with a group of insect friends. Together, they face challenges and experience incredible wonders as they travel across the ocean. Complete, Sofia Surely You're Joking, Mr. Feynman!: "Surely You're Joking, Mr. Feynman!" is an autobiographical book by physicist Richard Feynman. It is a collection of anecdotes and stories from his life, showcasing his brilliant mind and quirky personality. In Progress, Collapse: Sure, I'll provide you with the synopsis of the book, series, or text based on the title you provide. Just share the title with me! Not Started, Anne of Green Gables: "Anne of Green Gables" is a classic novel by Lucy Maud Montgomery that follows the adventures of Anne Shirley, an imaginative and spirited orphan who is mistakenly sent to live with a middle-aged brother and sister in the idyllic town of Avonlea. Anne's lively personality and vivid imagination lead to a series of heartwarming and humorous escapades as she navigates her new life on Prince Edward Island. Not Started, A Confederacy of Dunces: "A Confederacy of Dunces" is a comedic novel by John Kennedy Toole that follows the misadventures of Ignatius J. Reilly, an eccentric and over-educated character living in New Orleans. The story explores themes of social satire, absurdity, and the clash between idealism and reality. Complete, The Lord of the Rings: "The Lord of the Rings" is an epic fantasy novel by J.R.R. Tolkien that follows the quest to destroy the powerful One Ring and defeat the Dark Lord Sauron. It's a tale of friendship, heroism, and the battle between good and evil in the fictional world of Middle-earth. Complete, Matilda : "Matilda" is a children's novel by Roald Dahl about a young girl with extraordinary abilities who uses her intelligence and courage to navigate challenges, including dealing with her neglectful family and the tyrannical headmistress of her school. Complete, Ender's Game: In "Ender's Game," a young boy named Ender Wiggin is recruited into a military training program to prepare for an alien invasion. Ender must navigate a series of challenges and ethical dilemmas as he rises through the ranks to become a leader in the fight against the alien threat. Complete, Flowers For Algernon: "Flowers for Algernon" is a science fiction novel by Daniel Keyes that follows the story of Charlie Gordon, a man with an intellectual disability who undergoes an experimental surgery to increase his intelligence. As he becomes more intelligent, Charlie's life changes dramatically, but he also faces challenges and moral dilemmas along the way. Complete, Guns, Germs, and Steel: "Guns, Germs, and Steel" by Jared Diamond explores the reasons behind the global disparities in wealth and power by examining the role of geography, agriculture, and technology in shaping human history. In Progress, A Passage to India: "A Passage to India" by E.M. Forster is a novel that explores the complex interactions between the British colonizers and the Indian people in British-ruled India. The story delves into themes of friendship, cultural misunderstandings, and the clash of civilizations during the colonial era. Not Started, A Song of Ice and Fire: "A Song of Ice and Fire" is a series of epic fantasy novels by George R.R. Martin that follows the power struggles among noble families as they fight for control of the Iron Throne of the Seven Kingdoms. Full of political intrigue, betrayal, and complex characters, the series is known for its unpredictable plot twists and morally grey characters. Complete, Chaos: I'm sorry, I need more context to provide a synopsis. Could you please provide the full title of the book, series, or text you are referring to? Complete, A Wrinkle in Time : "A Wrinkle in Time" follows the adventures of Meg Murry, her brother Charles Wallace, and their friend Calvin as they travel through space and time to rescue Meg's father from the clutches of an evil force. The trio encounters strange beings and overcomes obstacles in their quest to save Mr. Murry and confront the darkness threatening the universe. Not Started, The Little Prince: "The Little Prince" is a classic novella written by Antoine de Saint-Exupéry. It tells the story of a young prince who travels from planet to planet, meeting various characters and learning important life lessons along the way. Complete, A Brief History of Time: "A Brief History of Time" by Stephen Hawking is a popular science book that explores the concepts of time, space, and the universe in accessible language. It discusses topics like black holes, the Big Bang theory, and the nature of time itself. In Progress, The Little Prince : "The Little Prince" is a classic novella written by Antoine de Saint-Exupéry. It tells the story of a young prince who travels from planet to planet, meeting various characters and learning important life lessons along the way. In Progress, The Alchemist: "The Alchemist" is a novel by Paulo Coelho that follows the journey of a young Andalusian shepherd named Santiago as he embarks on a quest for treasure in Egypt, learning about the importance of following one's dreams and listening to one's heart along the way. Complete,

Island of the Blue Dolphins: "After being left alone on an island, a young girl named Karana must survive and adapt to her new environment. As she learns to fend for herself, she forms a bond with the animals and nature around her."
In Progress,