

Completed Books:

1. "The Starless Sea" by Erin Morgenstern

Rating: 4.5/5

Synopsis: Zachary Ezra Rawlins discovers a mysterious book in his university library, leading him on a journey to a magical underground world filled with secrets, stories, and the enigmatic Starless Sea.

1. "The Night Circus" by Erin Morgenstern

Rating: 4.7/5

Synopsis: Le Cirque des Rêves, a circus that only opens at night, becomes the stage for a magical competition between two young illusionists, Marco and Celia, whose destinies are intertwined in this enchanting tale of love and rivalry.

2. "The Book Thief" by Markus Zusak

Rating: 4.6/5

Synopsis: Set during World War II in Nazi Germany, this poignant story follows Liesel Meminger, a young girl who steals books and shares their power with her neighbors and the Jewish man hiding in her basement, illustrating the enduring power of words and storytelling in the darkest of times.

3. "Circe" by Madeline Miller

Rating: 4.4/5

Synopsis: Circe, the immortal witch from Homer's "Odyssey," tells her own story in this spellbinding novel, exploring themes of power, womanhood, and self-discovery as she navigates the complexities of godhood and humanity.

4. "The Shadow of the Wind" by Carlos Ruiz Zafón

Rating: 4.5/5

Synopsis: In post-war Barcelona, Daniel Sempere discovers a forgotten novel by a mysterious author named Julián Carax, setting off a chain of events that intertwine his life with the secrets and tragedies of the past, in a story brimming with mystery, romance, and literary intrigue.

5. "The Nightingale" by Kristin Hannah

Rating: 4.8/5

Synopsis: Set in Nazi-occupied France, this gripping novel follows the lives of two sisters, Vianne and Isabelle, as they navigate love, sacrifice, and resistance during one of the darkest periods in history, showcasing the resilience of the human spirit in the face of adversity.

6. "Where the Crawdads Sing" by Delia Owens

Rating: 4.7/5

Synopsis: Kya Clark, known as the "Marsh Girl," grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina, becoming the subject of rumors and suspicions until a murder mystery brings her story to light, weaving together themes of nature, isolation, and the search for belonging.

7. "Pachinko" by Min Jin Lee

Rating: 4.6/5

Synopsis: Spanning generations and continents, this epic saga follows a Korean family living in Japan, exploring themes of identity, resilience, and the immigrant experience against the backdrop of war, discrimination, and the pursuit of the American Dream.

8. "Educated" by Tara Westover

Rating: 4.5/5

Synopsis: In this powerful memoir, Tara Westover recounts her journey from a survivalist family in rural Idaho, where she received no formal education, to earning a PhD from Cambridge University, shedding light on the transformative power of knowledge and self-discovery.

9. "The Alchemist" by Paulo Coelho

Rating: 4.3/5

Synopsis: Santiago, a young Andalusian shepherd, embarks on a journey to fulfill his personal legend, encountering wise mentors, spiritual lessons, and unexpected challenges along the way, in a timeless tale of following one's dreams and discovering one's destiny.